

I CORINTHIANS 12 VOCABULARY

_____concerning	a. not Christian, pagan
_____interpreter	b. to affect with a special feeling to do something
_____heathen	c. to be made up of (this is the answer to two vocab words)
_____consist	d. cannot be done without _____inspire	e. relating to, having to do with
_____indispensible	f. to speak
_____manifest	g. different languages
_____composed	h. of a lower quality
_____utter	i. to give (in shares or portions)
_____inferior	j. to be made apparent to the senses (usually sight)
_____prophecy	k. to foretell what is to come
_____apportion	l. someone who tells you what is being said in a different language
_____tongues

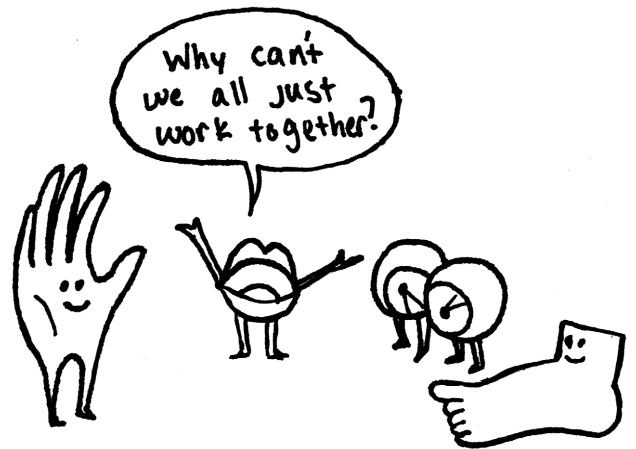

1. Which two words are synonyms (have similar meanings)?

2. If you speak in a different tongue than your listeners, they may need an _____ to understand what you are saying.
3. If something is not indispensable, then it is _____ (use the root word of indispensable).
4. Replace the first three letters of the word inferior to make a new word that means the opposite thing: e r i o r.
5. You hope your mother does not wish to talk to you _____ chores.

I CORINTHIANS 12 VOCABULARY

concerning	interpreter
heathen	consist
inspire	indispensible
manifest	composed
utter	inferior
prophecy	apportions
tongues

1. Jesus Christ became _____ to people at the incarnation.
2. God _____ gifts to each of us.
3. a synonym of pagan: _____
4. If we don't know a language, we will need an _____.
5. I want to talk to you _____ your new job.
6. to tell what is coming in the future: _____
7. to "be made of": _____ and _____
8. something of lower quality is: _____
9. something you can not do without is: _____
10. different languages: _____
11. A good science teacher may _____ you to become a scientist.
12. Do not _____ a false word.

