

Matthew 20

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| _____ hire | a. to char by burning |
| _____ vineyard | b. the amount paid for work done |
| _____ idle | c. to pay for work to be done |
| _____ foreman | d. to feel ill-will or resentment towards another's good fortune |
| _____ wage | e. the man in charge of a group of workers |
| _____ scorch | f. to declared guilty and in need of penalty |
| _____ begrudge | g. the feeling of scorn or anger |
| _____ generous | h. sorrow felt for another's suffering |
| _____ condemn | i. useless, to spend time unprofitably |
| _____ flog | j. the redeeming or release of a captive by payment of money |
| _____ indignant | k. to beat with a strap, stick, whip, etc |
| _____ ransom | l. land dedicated to cultivating grape vines |
| _____ pity | m. the willingness to give or share |

v.1. The kingdom of heaven is like a _____ of a house.

v.1. At what time of day did the master go out?

- a. early in the morning
- b. early afternoon
- c. early evening

v.1. What was the master going to do?

v.2. How much pay did the laborers agree to for a day's work?

v.3-4. What did the master do three hours later?

- v.4. What pay did these laborers agree to?
- v.5-7. Three hours later, and then again six hours later, what did the master do?
- v.5-7. Did the master tell these men how much they would be paid?
- v.8. At the end of the day, when it was time to pay the laborer's wages, who did the master pay first?
- the ones who had been working the longest
 - the ones who had been working only a short time
- v.9-12. Which laborers received the most money?
- the ones who had been working the longest
 - the ones who had been working only a short time
 - everyone received the same amount
- v.11-12. How did the laborers who had worked all day in the scorching heat feel about this?
- they were happy that the master was generous to the other men
 - they grumbled because they thought it wasn't fair
- v.13. Why had the master not wronged those who had worked all day?
- because he paid them exactly what they had agreed upon, a _____.
- v.15. Is the master allowed to do what he wants with what belongs to him, and to be generous with whomever he wishes to be generous to?
- yes
 - no
- v.16. The last will be _____, and the first will be _____.
- v.17. Where are Jesus and the disciples headed?
- v.18-19. What (4) things did Jesus prophecy would happen to him?
- He will be _____ over to the chief priests and scribes
 - they will _____ Him to death
 - they will deliver Him to the _____ to be mocked, flogged, and _____
 - He will be _____ on the _____ day
- v.20. Who kneeled before Christ and asked Him for something?
- v.21. What did she ask of Christ?
- "Say that these two _____ of mine are to sit, one at your _____ and one at your _____, in your kingdom."

- v.22. Jesus asked, are you able to drink the _____ that I am to drink?
They replied, “yes/no” (circle one).
- v.23. Did Jesus say that they would drink his cup?
a. yes
b. no
- v.23. Did Jesus say they would be able to sit at His right hand and at His left?
a. yes
b. no
- v.23. Who will get to sit next to Jesus in His kingdom?
a. for whoever it has been prepared for by the _____
- v.26. Jesus said, “Whoever would be great among you must...”
a. be the best
b. be the smartest
c. be your servant
- v.27. Whoever would be first among you must...”
a. be outgoing
b. be beautiful/handsome
c. be your slave
- v.28. The Son of Man came to
a. be served
b. serve
- v.28. The Son of Man came to give his life as a _____ for many.
- v.29-30. Who called out to Jesus calling him the “Son of David”?
- v.31. (True/False) When told by the crowd to be quiet, the men stopped calling Him.
- v.34. Jesus, in _____, touched their eyes, and they were healed.

